

Brown Street

112 Brown Street, Santa Rosa, California

Community Housing Sonoma County, as turn key developer, provided the financial expertise and well-established relationships with service providers and local funders to ensure the preservation of this facility for the fifteen women residents who live there. Community Support Network provides full time services that are designed to meet each resident's needs. The program is intended to empower residents to maintain stability within a community setting while striving toward maximum independent living.

Project Type
Preservation

Year Completed
2006

Project Description
15-unit licensed residential care facility providing permanent supportive housing for women living with mental illness.

Funding Sources
Santa Rosa Housing Authority

Total Project Cost
$914,750

Owner/Service Provider
Community Support Network